Scheffler of '5-Stones' Named Citizen of the Year

Tracy Scheffler, the founder of 5-Stones Beaver Dam was named the Dodge County Executive Law Enforcement (DECLEA) 'Citizen of the Year' at DECLEA's Annual awards banquet Sunday night.

5-Stones Beaver Dam exists to bring awareness to and prevent human trafficking. Scheffler and her organization have volunteered hundreds of hours and made numerous presentations on the topic to area groups. In November, they hosted a local forum on human trafficking attended by more than four hundred community members.
